There will be a dance performance, a Hula dance performance and a Taiko drum performance, the Coca-Cola South Sea Islanders band, a Shamisen concert, the AFE bands - the Lt Dan's New Legs and the Subrosa Union. Additionally, our special guests-the AFN Radio folks - will be on hand in the Eagle 810 booth for a live on-air broadcast. Private organizations and sponsors are featuring a variety of booths. Camp Zama Auto Craft Shop
CLASSES HELD AT THE AUTO CRAFT SHOP

For more information, phone Naohisa French at 263-3615.

- How to do a basic check of your vehicle: 2 and 16 April
- How to change your spark plugs: 7 and 21 May
- How to change your oil and oil filter: 16 and 30 April
- What to look for when buying a used car: 14 and 28 May

NOTE: Final day of sign up is the Friday prior to the class date. All materials and supplies are to be supplied by the students. For sign up information, please call 263-3615.

HELPFUL HINT

- Did you know it is highly recommended that you change your windshield wipers at a minimum once every two years and once a year in heavy rainfall areas and dry hot areas? Most wiper blades are made out of rubber and after a while they dry out, get hard and brittle, and eventually fall apart. With heavy rainfall, there is much more usage and wear and tear on the blades.
- Did you know that lots of "stop and go" traffic makes you have to change your engine oil sooner? The oil has to work harder with the engines "inconsistent" speed.

For more information, 263-3615.

TOWING SERVICE AND ROADSIDE ASSISTANCE

We offer a towing service and roadside assistance Tuesday through Sunday during regular Auto Craft Shop hours of operation.
